Re: ACTIVITY REPORT

• Sports & Events Updates –

- Soccer – Biggest season yet, with over 880 players on 90 teams. Wrapping up for youngest divisions on November 5 and older divisions on November 12.
- Basketball – Registration is open until November 4th. Practices start after Thanksgiving, games start January 7.
- Livin' the Dream Volunteer Awards – Took place Saturday, October 8 at the Templeton Legion Hall. Event was sold out and preliminary numbers show we raised in excess of $70,000.
- Community Clean-Up – Successful event on October 15. We had 21 volunteers in total, most of whom were high schoolers. Picked up approximately .75 tons of trash. Most of the trash was collected in the dirt lot of the high school and down by the high school football field. The next highest volume was collected along Ramada and Cow Meadow.

• In other news:

- Evers Park Improvement Plan – Expecting to receive submittals for permitting in the next couple weeks. District staff will submit the plans to SLO County over the counter to save time.
- Templeton Community Library Reading Room – TCLA has announced their intentions to be out of the Recreation Department building before November.
- Great Adventures Preschool – Had a successful surprise visit from state licensing on October 6.
